Sue has spent almost 50 years as a community volunteer, sharing her expertise in governance, fund-raising, networking and marketing with more than 60 organizations. An Ohio native, she and her husband transplanted to Clearwater Beach in 2002. Locally she served on the Board of the Clearwater Marine Aquarium for 5 years, and currently is on the Board of the Community Foundation of Tampa Bay, chairs the Legacy Society for Church of Ascension, is a member of +ONE – Women United for the Power of One, and has been secretary/treasurer of Carlouel Homeowners for 10 years.

With an interest in gardening, habitats and green spaces, she has served on the Board and been an advocate for The Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Gardens, Cox Arboretum, Woodland Arboretum, Aullwood Audubon Center and Farm, Garden Club of America, Garden Club of Dayton and Green Downtown Dayton.

As a believer in the power of Arts to nurture communities, she has served on Boards, including the Dayton Black Cultural Festival, The Muse Machine, Dayton Opera, Piqua Fine Arts Continuing Education Fund, Very Special Arts Ohio, and Culture Works!.

Recognizing education as a cornerstone of our communities, she has served on the Boards of Antioch University, St. Paul's College, Hanover College, Tulane Parents Council, Oakwood Schools Business and Finance Committees, Public Broadcasting – WDPR/WDPG/WYSO and Dayton- Montgomery County Scholarship Program.

In support of Community Initiatives, she has served with United Way, The Dayton Foundation, Crime Stoppers, Kids Voting, Junior League, Leadership Dayton, Ronald McDonald House Capital Campaign, and Episcopal Church Diocesan grants.

She is a graduate of Hanover College and The New York Institute of Finance.
